READING

is to the
MIND
what exercise
is to the BODY.

Sir Richard Steele

Hello dear parents this week we started our weekly routine and quizzes. I realized that all the kids don't read enough which resulted in weak writing skills and poor spellings. As a result I will ask the students to read literacy books in class and you encourage them to re read it at home. If possible please buy more books and encourage them to read more as they will benefit from this. I will also start my reading awards lets all work as a team and make them read more.

I revise everything I do and I don't start new lessons until I make sure that they all understand. So, no worries if any of the kids didn't catch up.

Our quizzes will continue to take place on Thursday we have vocabulary, reading and spelling.
